Case No.: CV-2024-

COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY JUDGMENT

COMES NOW, the Plaintiff, B. Jimmy Carter King, asking this Honorable Court to confirm the following declaration in the form of a judgment:

PARTIES

1. The Plaintiff (hereinafter “King”) is an individual citizen over the age of nineteen and a resident of Blount County, Alabama.
2. The Defendant, State of Alabama (hereinafter “Government”), is locally represented by the following individuals in their official capacities:
 - a. Mark Moon, Sheriff of Blount County
 - b. Pamela Casey, District Attorney of Blount County

VENUE AND JURISDICTION

3. This matter is brought pursuant to Amendment No. 622 to our State’s current Constitution.
4. Venue is proper in Blount County, Alabama.
5. This case ultimately involves a question of spiritual sincerity. Your Honor, Sheriff Moon, and Ms. Casey have known King personally and professionally for over a decade, through days of darkness and light. As such, they are ideally prepared for such an inquiry; no recusals are warranted.

DECLARATION

“The destiny of man is not measured by material computations. When great forces are on the move in the world, we learn we're spirits – not animals.”¹

6. King's religious freedom is burdened by Government's regulation of all isomers of the naturally occurring organic chemical $C_{21}H_{30}O_2$ (hereinafter “THC”).
7. King first ingested THC in 2018 at age thirty-eight in Eugene, Oregon (then a legal jurisdiction).
8. King was spiritually reborn three years ago today, at the JH Ranch in northern California.
9. King was led to Christ by Holy Spirit as manifested through J.T. Burney, a man of God, and Hebrews 12:1.
10. While under the influence of THC, King has worshipped God in many legal jurisdictions, including July and September trips to San Francisco last fall with his two oldest children.²
11. Citizens in most of our sister states now have the freedom to worship God while under the influence of THC.
12. Edible products containing small amounts of THC are currently legal under the Federal Farm Bill and available for purchase in adjacent Jefferson County.
13. King regularly consumed ethyl alcohol (C_2H_5OH) for two decades but prefers the effects of THC; he has watched legal alcohol destroy dozens of lives and families.
14. THC “accentuates attributes of environmental stimuli.”³ This spiritually amplifies each visual consideration of a sunset, sparrow, or lily.
15. King experiences no negative side effects from THC; his wife of twenty years will offer live sworn testimony to confirm this point.⁴
16. King holds fee simple title to real property in Blount County.
17. King believes – like Old Order Amish – that children of God are called to live as independently from Government as possible.

¹ President Reagan quoted this line from Winston Churchill in his “A Time for Choosing” speech (1964).

² Exhibit A is the worship guide from the first of those services. The message was from Matthew 11, wherein Jesus exclaims that John the Baptist, who neither ate much or drank wine, was called a demon, while He (Jesus) came eating and drinking; the crowds called him “a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners.”

³ Never Enough: The Neuroscience and Experience of Addiction, Chapter 3, by Judith Grisel (2019).

⁴ King proffers evidence that his family has grown emotionally closer to each other and God as a result of responsible consumption of THC (while maintaining spiritual focus on Christ).

18. King claims the right to grow any plant that produces THC on his private property, for his personal consumption during times of worship, leisure, and illness, and for sharing with other citizens who are present on his family's private property.
19. King releases Government from any responsibility for his future physical health or comfort.
20. King respects Government and desires only recognition of this fundamental right.
21. For the rest of his physical life, King furthermore pledges to give more to Government than he takes.
22. Government has demonstrated very little competence in its regulation of commercially ingested chemicals.⁵ (see also present opioid crisis, obesity rates, and 18th Amendment to the Federal Constitution).
23. King is willing to face cross examination from Government concerning the sincerity of his faith; he will support his argument with the Word of God.
24. King offers to reorganize this Complaint for representation of a class if some of his fellow citizens feel so spiritually inclined. Otherwise, he is prepared to make this argument alone.
25. King invites members of the Bar to file Notices of Appearance in support of this constitutional position. Otherwise, he will defend this position, pro sé.
26. King prays this case will draw attention to the real problems Government should address this fall: namely early childhood exposure and addiction to visual forms of consumer advertising, pornography, and self-images, of which Jesus clearly warns.⁶
27. From this day forward, the CEOs of big tech have a fiduciary duty to silence King (see Mark 9:42-47).
28. The children of this nation collectively need a Guardian ad Litem.
29. King prays the filing of this complaint leads to widespread spiritual and political reformations, one household at a time.
30. King encourages his fellow citizens to join Tennessee and the rest of the nation in fervent, individual, prayer (see Matthew 6:5), for God is still in control.

⁵ Exhibit B is an advertisement published on the back cover of Life magazine's July 7, 1946, edition, wherein doctors glowingly endorse cigarettes.

⁶ King's first memory of President Carter involved a "gaffe", wherein the President confessed his struggle with the flesh to Playboy magazine. He immediately dropped 15% in public opinion polls...how is that for persecution! Thank you, Mr. Carter, for your bold witness and honesty. May God continue to bless you.

31. Only God can make America great again. To think otherwise is folly, for there is nothing new under the sun (see Ecclesiastes, Chapter 1).
32. King's Savior wore purple; the Bible doesn't endorse red or blue.
33. "Every kingdom divided against itself will be ruined."⁷
34. "When his family heard about this, they went to take charge of him, for they said, "He is out of his mind."⁸

WHEREFORE, King respectfully requests the Court:

- (a) Require Government to respond to this claim.
- (b) Set this Complaint for hearing in forty days.⁹
- (c) Judicially recognize the validity of Plaintiff's claim by the granting of summary judgment.
- (d) Enjoin Government from interfering with Plaintiff's pursuit of happiness.
- (e) Grant any such other, different, further and/or equitable relief to which the Plaintiff is entitled under the circumstances.

Respectfully declared this 4th of July, 2024.

⁹ This claim involves freedom of religious expression and is consequently of priority.

Yes, your doctor was asked too, along with thousands of others from Maine to California! Family physicians, surgeons, nose and throat specialists... doctors in every branch of medicine were asked.

Three nationally known independent research organizations... hundreds of trained research specialists... put the question: "What cigarette do you smoke, Doctor?"

The answers came in by the thousands from all over the country... the actual statements of doctors themselves. Figures were checked and re-checked with scientific precision. The answer? Right! Camels! And by a very convincing margin!
